

No New Medical Center For Belleville Reported?

BELLEVILLE — Residents of the Belleville area and those residing in adjacent communities will be denied the service of a first class medical facility if unofficial reports disclosed by the chairman of the Board of Directors of the Belvil Community Hospital Association are confirmed.

The Association owns and operates the Belvil Community Hospital, a 70-bed medical facility, located at 105 Main Street.

THE REQUEST to build was presented to the Planning Committee of the Greater Detroit Area Hospital Council, Inc., Detroit.

A decision on results of this hearing, held before the committee on Sept. 25, is awaited by the Belvil Hospital Board.

Both hospital officials and community leaders hold that there is a "vital need" for a modern medical facility for the Belleville area.

The cost of renovating and remodeling the present Belvil Hospital structure in line with good hospital requirements and to meet the daily increasing need is "so exorbitant."

IT WAS revealed that during the hearing (Sept. 25) the committee inquired as to why the Belleville community was not a member of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority now serving some 23 communities. They were told that the people of Belleville twice voted down the proposition of becoming affiliated with PCHA.

reorganization of the present Belvil Hospital Association in November, 1966, an executive of the council stated "that there was no need for a hospital in the Belleville area."

Belvil Hospital recently received a six months extension of Blue Cross participation.

DEBBI HINK, holding an armful of red roses, prepared to receive her crown from Jacque Wesley Boone, who as the 1966 Belleville High Homecoming Queen, did the honors in presenting the tiara to the current monarch.

IS SRO EVENT

Debbi Hink is Crowned Queen Of Belleville's Homecoming

BELLEVILLE — The 1968 Homecoming of Belleville High School was a standing room only event.

Inclement weather failed to dampen Homecoming Week officials, students and spectators or programmed festivities.

Despite weather conditions, capacity crowds saw Miss Debbi Hink, 17, popular high school senior, varsity cheerleader and student council member, crowned Homecoming Queen during half time festivities.

Queen Debbi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hink, 12520 Stanley Drive, Belleville.

Homecoming officially began at the last period on Friday when a Pep Assembly was held at the high school.

Queen contestants were introduced, followed by a cheerleaders' rendition and meeting the football players.

THE STUDENTS were released from classes early to be able to witness the parade of floats that started at the high school, paraded through downtown Belleville and then back to the high school where Belleville football team played Plymouth High School. Prior to game start, students assembled at Victory Park for a snake dance through town, thence to the field.

Belleville played hard and well but lost the game by a score of 19 to 13 (see sports pages).

Classes used TV commercials as their theme for float entries. The Queen's royal court consisted of Nancy Brown, Karin Carter, Kathy Hoelt and Debbie Thompson.

The Sophomore Class won First Place trophy for their entry: "Caution: Tigers May be Hazardous to Your Health."

The winning float among the club entries was that of the French Club showing "Tiger in Your Tank."

After crowning of Debbi Hink at half time, the traditional waltz with the Drum Major, Jack Keelan, was performed.

Romulus Homecoming is Big Success Despite Foul Weather

ROMULUS — The Romulus High's 1968-1969 Homecoming was a big success for Romulus despite the foul weather and a football loss.

The Homecoming parade was one of the biggest and best

Romulus has ever had and this year's theme was "These United States."

Each entrant took a state and built a theme around this particular state and the U.S.A. in general.

More clubs than ever entered floats this year and almost all of the remaining clubs or groups entered a decorated car in the parade.

Township groups such as the Girl Scouts also participated and anyone who owned a horse was invited to ride in the parade.

THE TEAM showed a lot of spirit and fight against tough rival River Rouge although Romulus lost.

Parcel Post, Catalog Rates are Increased

BELLEVILLE — Postmasters R. J. O'Neil of Belleville, George Austin of Romulus, and Harry Shiminsky of New Boston reminded postal customers that new higher parcel post and catalog rates were placed in effect on Saturday, Oct. 19.

The rate increase will average 10.5 per cent and in most cases will mean an additional ten cents postage per parcel.

The higher rates were approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission in July.

UNDER THE new rates the minimum charge for local parcel delivery will go from 40 to 50 cents. The minimum charge for parcels destined outside the local delivery area will be raised from 50 cents to 60 cents.

Almost all parcels that are charged up to $1.10 under present rates will go up 10 cents. This accounts for more than 80 per cent of all parcel post, the Postmasters pointed out.

There will be a 15-cent hike on most parcels now charged between $1.10 and $4.00, and a 20-cent increase on parcels now charged over $4.00.

Parcel post rates are based on the weight of the package and the distance it is mailed.

HIGHER RATES for the delivery of packages and catalogs are required to bring revenue from this type of mail within four per cent of operating costs, as required by law, the Postmasters explained.

The higher rates are designed to put parcels and catalogs, which are fourth-class mail, on a break-even basis.

Employees Needed for New Court

BELLEVILLE — Francis Duane Ross, nominee for judge of the new 34th District Court, has announced that he is seeking qualified applicants to fill jobs to be created by the new judicial system.

Noting that there would be only about fifty five days between the time of election of the new judge on Nov. 5, and the time when the judicial system goes into effect on Jan. 1, 1969, Ross explained the present need for the names and addresses of qualified applicants.

The new law creates an entirely new Court and provides a new set of systems and procedures for District Courts.

"The law also provides that the Court's work shall be administered by Court Clerks, Deputy Clerks, Process Servers and others."

The numbers of employees will be determined sometime shortly after Nov. 9, when the elected judges have been asked to meet in Lansing. In the meantime, any information as to qualified candidates for positions within the District Court system will be most helpful he stated.

"I would urge any adult resident of the Townships of Huron, Romulus, Sumpter, Van Buren or the City of Belleville who has recent training and/or experience in secretarial, bookkeeping or stenographic positions to send me their name, address and brief resume of their experience and training.

"The appointments probably cannot become official before Jan. 1, but I believe that the new jobs should be filled on a

Doe Invades Downtown New Boston

NEW BOSTON — Residents of downtown New Boston Monday had a before the season experience with deer hunting activity.

An experience that was unexpected and "most unusual."

Early Monday, a 165-pound doe peeked then entered Chris Maciolek's Mobil Oil Gasoline Station located on Huron River Drive.

Maciolek busy at the time looked up in amazement and with this the doe took off across the street and dove right through the front plate glass window of Delano's Beauty Shop.

Two beauty operators and one customer made a fast screaming exit.

The doe remained in the beauty shop for about ten minutes then took for nearby fields through the broken plate glass.

She left the beauty shop in shambles, it was reported.

During the excitement someone had the presence of mind to telephone the nearest conservation officer.

The doe was still a fugitive at edition time.

Van Buren School District Building New Junior High

Construction Cost Set at $2,257,000

Groundbreaking Ceremonies Held at McBride, Beck Roads

By HENRY CANTIN
ANP Staff Writer

BELLEVILLE — Van Buren Public School District's new $2,257,000 Junior High School is officially underway.

Groundbreaking ceremonies for the school system's newest and second to be Junior High structure were held last Friday morning Oct. 18, at the school's site, located on McBride and Beck Roads, north of I-94 Expressway and west of Belleville Road.

The new school facility will be of 123,200 square feet and will provide "vitality needed" school space requirements.

The total cost including equipment and site improvement is $2,900,000, Dale E. Kaulitz, school superintendent, reported.

The new school will be paid by funds from a bond issue approved by voters some time ago.

The new facility is designed for optimum capacity of 1,000 students, grades seven through nine, with a maximum capacity of 1,200 students. The first unit is scheduled for occupancy in September, 1969.

FIGURES RELEASED by the State Department of Public Education disclosed that the state's average unit cost for Junior High Schools awarded during 1967-68 school year was $21.13 per square foot.

Van Buren's school project construction unit cost is $18.40 per square foot, Kaulitz reported.

The new Junior High facility is a result of planning by "total

THE NEW Junior High Building will represent the best in modern educational planning and architectural excellence, they stated.

Romulus Schools Report Record Student Enrollment

ROMULUS — A record student enrollment for the current school year was reported by Romulus Community Schools.

The number of students now attending Romulus school totalled 5,091, the highest in the school's system, Robert L. McConeghy, school superintendent reported Monday.

This was the student count submitted to Lansing school officials for state aid for the 1968-69 school year.

This compared with a student count of 4,916 last year.

Romulus Community Schools are currently using eight portable class rooms and it is hoped that additional class rooms now under construction at Cory and Mt. Pleasant Elementary Schools will be ready for use by next September.

The school system has also a new elementary school under programming.

Although the state school aid will be up slightly this year $223.16 net per child as against $209.83 per child last year, the increase in property valuation in the school district reported for this year reduces the amount of school aid, McConeghy stated.

From grades K to sixth grade, the number of pupils now stands at 2,795 up 186 students. In the Junior High grades (seventh and eighth grades) the total is 781 up 116.

In the high school, the student count was reported at 1,246 up 41. Home bound students increased 2 to six and Type A student (special) jumped from 47 to 77.

The more quickly that the new District Judge is made aware as to whom in the District is interested in filling the newly created jobs, the more quickly interviews may be arranged.

Please write Francis Duane Ross, 258 Main Street, Belleville, Michigan.

All applications received will be forwarded to the 34th District Court for action."

The team is working hard this year to overcome their "bad" season last year and they're showing good results for their hard work, it was reported.

Half-time was the highlight of the day. Trophy winners were announced and the new queen was crowned.

The trophy for the group that showed the most participation in the spirit of Homecoming went to the French Club and their entry of the Mardi Gras from Louisiana. The Yearbook Staff car was chosen by the judges as the best decorated car in the parade.

The Romulus Automotive Association won the trophy for the best club float with their entry of "Race to Victory" from the "Indy 500".

The Freshman class won the best class float trophy with the liberty bell and "Ring to Victory." The Junior class won the spirit jug as is tradition although the Senior class gave them stiff competition.

THEN CAME the climax of the day, the time to crown the new queen. Sue Crow, last year's queen, was present to crown the new queen.

A lot of preparation led up to this event. First, five girls were chosen as the court from a field of forty-one. This first vote was about two weeks before Homecoming.

During Homecoming Week these five girls put up campaign posters and each gave a skit to convince the student body that she was best qualified to be elected queen.

The day before Homecoming the student body voted. The ballots were counted by Gerald Nault, school principal, and two teachers, Mrs. Turner and Mr. Hill.

The results were kept secret until half-time when the new queen was crowned.

She was Sandy Peter. Sandy was crowned and presented with one dozen red roses.

HER COURT consisted of Jo Ann Allen, Bobbi Jo McRae, Sharyn Sturtz and Vivian Ward. Each of these girls was presented with a small trophy and one half dozen white roses.

The end of Homecoming was marked by the Homecoming dance. The queen, court and their escorts were the guests of honor at the dance.

Many students and alumni attended the dance to make this final event of Homecoming a success.

Students of Romulus High School would like to thank Ezy Products Company, Rheem Container Company and C. Rickert, Inc., for donating trophies that were presented at Homecoming.

The students also want to thank the following car dealers: Harold Dietrich Inc., and LeBarron Motor Sales both of Wayne for donating cars and area farmers who donated their hay wagons for Homecoming floats.

"This (PCHA) type of district hospital authority operation is a direct approach of ultimate government control of all hospitals. It is my personal feeling that this community deserves a community operated facility as opposed to government operated."

THERE EXISTS an urgent need for more and adequate hospital facilities in the Belleville area. As of last Saturday there was a waiting list of patients seeking admittance, he reported.

Nearest hospitals are from 13 to 15 miles away, one patient complained.

Belvil Hospital administrators say that "We are at a point now of 'Does this community really want a first-class community-operated hospital facility?'"

We here at the Enterprise-Roman invite reader comment. Address your comment in a Letter to the Editor or to the Board of Directors of the Belvil Hospital.

The local medical facility has been in operation for 15 years and during the last 12 months handled 3,600 patients, including some 2,000 in-patients.

Local hospital officials forecast and expect some 5,000 patients in the immediate years ahead.

REACT Distributes Fact Sheet

ROMULUS — A fact sheet prepared by the REACT-KEEP ROMULUS INTACT committee, a non-partisan committee of Romulus Township residents urging approval of the City Incorporation issue facing township voters Nov. 5, has been distributed to every home throughout Romulus, committee officials reported.

The contents of the fact sheet are as follows:

A Proposition on the Nov. 5 Ballot asks:

"Shall the Boundaries of the Proposed City of Romulus South Particularly Described as Follows: (a long detailed description of the entire Township) "Be Incorporated as the City of Romulus"? And in conjunction with the above proposition, the following offices are to be voted for: Nine Charter Commission Members.

A "YES" vote, and election of the nine Charter Commission Members, does not mean that Nov. 6, the next day, we will be a city. In fact, nothing will change, except that nine people will begin to prepare a City Charter.

The Charter Commission has two years time in which to write and present a suitable and acceptable City Charter. Charters may be presented three times during this two year period to the voters for their acceptance or rejection. (NOTE: We will not become a City until we accept a City Charter and elect the Officials to run the new City).

Meanwhile, our Township will be protected from annexation attempts. The danger of annexation is real and does exist. The known petitions are for parts of our industrial, commercial and vacant properties which provide the foundation of our tax base. Can you afford to pay for the loss of this tax money from your own pocket????

CONCERN HAS been expressed on the cost of running a City. The Charter will give us the answer to this question. Meanwhile here are some facts to study:

• We have our own Water and Sewer Department, and certain other Public Works projects may be undertaken, and financed through the Revenue Bond Act, which means these projects would be paid for entirely upon the use and service of these facilities.

• As a City, we would be eligible to receive State aid for our streets and highways from the Motor Vehicle Highway Fund, which is distributed by the State to cities in proportion to their population and street mileage.

• Townships have little voice in the matter of street construction and maintenance. Cities receive gas and weight tax returns from the State to help finance this work.

• A City must provide police for the peace and safety of the community. Romulus recently voted 1½ mills for this purpose.

• Our Police Department would have the same authority as the county sheriff, and as a city we would be able to keep all fines and fees that are now turned over to the County.

• It is not necessary to have a full-time Fire Department. Our Volunteer Fire Department, which is one of the finest in the State, would be more than adequate.

• Our schools would not be affected. The School Districts are set up and governed by the state.

• Health and Welfare Services will continue to be provided by the County (Detroit is the only city in the state large enough to have their own).

• As a city, all Romulus residents would have a Romulus address, as opposed to using Wayne, Inksters, etc., as now happens, and this would eliminate a lot of confusion.

• As a city, we could adopt and enforce our own municipal codes and ordinances, which could eliminate many of the building problems we now face. In no way can a city weaken National and State Codes, but can improve and strengthen them and the enforcement of the codes and ordinances.

As a Non-Partisan Committee, working only for the protection of our Romulus, we can not and will not endorse any candidate or "slate" of candidates for the Charter Commission, but do sincerely hope that you take a good non-partisan look at each individual candidate running strictly on their individual merit.

IN ROMULUS TODAY

Industrial Development Experts Studying Michigan Communities

Industrial development experts representing Michigan state government, railroads, utilities, the Society of Industrial Realtors and others involved in economic development in Michigan are visiting eight southeastern Michigan communities, (Oct. 21-24,) to survey industrial growth possibilities and recommend steps to enhance their industrial development opportunities.

The group will travel by Indian Trails bus to assure efficient communication and coordination.

The tour is an activity of the Michigan Department of Commerce, Office of Economic Expansion, in cooperation with Michigan realtors, railroads and utilities.

Communities scheduled to be visited in the fall tour include: Port Huron, Troy, Wixom, Southgate, Romulus, Taylor and Westland.

A SIMILAR tour this past June visited Midland, Clare, Grayling, Tawas-East Tawas, West Branch, Standish and St. Johns.

According to B.M. (Mike) Conboy, Director of the Office of Economic Expansion, the group has visited 53 Michigan communities during the past three and one half years.

He also pointed out that trips of this type are a continuing activity on the part of the State to assist areas in their individual efforts to attract additional employment opportunities.

Approximately 15 communities are visited each year by the group. Each of the two tours is a week in length. Small and medium sized towns previously visited have been located in all parts of the State, including the Upper Peninsula.

Large cities have not been visited by industrial tours since most have industrial development personnel on their staff.

THE PROFESSIONAL industrial team will include: a member of the Society of Industrial Realtors; B.M. Conboy, John P. Kavanagh, William Cochran, William Boyd, Jr., and James Bryant of the Office of Economic Expansion; Leonard Clarkson, Michigan Employment Security Commission; Wilbur M. Young and George Lloyd of Detroit Edison Company; Dick Surbrook, George H. Hillman and Vern A. Anderson of Consumers Power Company; and R.B. (Mike) Michels of the Norfolk and Western Railway Co. Boyd will serve as tour coordinator.

The team in each community will inspect the central business district, commercial areas, industrial sites, schools, public facilities, recreational areas and typical residential neighborhoods.

Following the tour, the group will hold a conference to analyze their findings and comment on steps which might add to the industrial appeal of the area.

Board Aids Migrant Children

DETROIT — A Wayne County Intermediate School District program to provide services for school age children of migratory farm workers has been approved.

Dr. Arnold Glovinsky has been appointed director of the Wayne County Migrant Program.

Federal legislation has made available funds, administered through the State Department of Education, to provide programs to meet high priority educational needs of migrant children.

The program, as planned, will involve Detroit and some out-county districts. Teacher-counselors and paraprofessionals will identify the children and help determine needed educational services.

AFTER THE children are identified and their most pressing educational, health, and social needs determined, the staff of the Wayne County Migrant Program will work with the schools and communities to provide the experiences and services which will enhance the children's opportunities for successful school careers.

The Migrant Program staff will work on problem diagnosis, assist regular teachers with appropriate methodologies especially suited to the needs of bilingual and/or educationally disadvantaged children, and provide the contacts with families which can result in improved academic performances, better health, and social adjustment.

Group and individual tutoring are included in the program.

A preliminary investigation indicates that there are approximately 22,000 Spanish-speaking children of school age in Wayne County, a substantial number of whom are children of former migrant workers.

IN ADDITION to the Spanish-speaking children, there are migrant families in the county from Florida and Appalachia. Prior to approval of the WCISD project, there was no program in the county designed to meet the special needs of migrant children.

The Wayne County Migrant

Program is funded for one calendar year beginning September, 1968.

Activities of the Program, wherever possible, will be carried out in the regular classroom to which the children are assigned.

THE PROBLEMS ARE BIG Pollution Out of Control . . .

Water and air pollution threaten to choke our very existence. These problems must be met head on — Today, before they really get out of hand. Combined action from Federal, State, and local government in partnership with industry is the only real answer to this problem.

Skyrocketing Spending . . .

Money can be most effectively administered at the local level. We need more programs where tax money is returned to local government to increase its efficient use. Gas tax money could go to local communities to support road improvement, an example of more efficient spending meaning less tax money needed.

Schools Need Help . . .

Our schools are in financial shock . . . we must find a more efficient way of financing our educational programs. I propose that a state income tax for Education replace our current outdated property tax. Monies, distributed and controlled at the local level, would support an improved educational program.

AN EDITORIAL

Know Candidates, Issues Then Vote

In the last election, one third of the nation's eligible citizens failed to vote and thereby carry out the first obligation that every U.S. citizen owes to himself and his country.

Between now and election day, every voter should take the time to familiarize himself with candidates and the point of view they represent.

In this year's general election, the American people will select a President and thousands of other office holders including U.S. Senators and Representatives, governors and state legislators.

These officials will make and administer the laws of the land under which we all must live. They will decide on the role of government in our lives, the amount of taxes we must pay, the wars we must fight and how many of our young men must serve in which branches of the armed forces and for how long.

Every voter owes it to himself to take part in selecting the best men and women to carry out these vital functions.

If you expect to be away from home on election day, Nov. 5, arrange to cast an absentee ballot. It is estimated absentee voting accounts for from one per cent to six per cent of the total vote. This can mean victory or defeat for the candidates of your choice.

This November, know the issues and the people — then VOTE.

Sumpter voters were invited to attend a discussion concerning two proposals on the November ballot — a repeal of sales tax and a bonding amendment concerning school buildings — both pertinent to the Sumpter School District.

In sports, the Romulus Eagles routed Saline 15-13 with Patterson, Campbell, and Laine, carrying the ball for those winning points.

Sports pages noted the steamrolling Romulus High's 47-0 win over Detroit Lutheran and the Belleville Tigers loss 26-0 to Plymouth.

The Belleville cross country team, in the meantime, won the High School Invitational Tourney at Alma. Belleville placed five men in the first 16 to compile a score of 44 points. Gregg, Edwards, Smith, Rounsifer, and Daroci were placers.

Society noted the weddings of Irene Campbell and Charles Kadau; Mildred Reinsmith and Pvt. Andrew Hefke; and Janet Marshall and Stefan Novakovich and also the betrothal of Josephine Gilbert and Oliver Allen

10 YEARS AGO

OCTOBER 22, 1958 — The 1958 Belleville High Homecoming Queen, Beverly Pink, and her court were pictured on page one. (We mistakenly named Ginger Branham as winner in last week's column — she won the crown one year later.) Along with Miss Branham, her attendants were Mary Ann Padgett, Diane Jacobs, and Kay Ellward. Subsequent photos showed Beverly dancing the traditional waltz with BHS Drum Major, Dick Pitcher. The Tigers' grid victory added to the gala event, their score being 35-6 over Plymouth. Bob Wisniewski scored two TD's while Dick Locke, Tom Brewer, and Ken McCullers garnered the other winning points.

The Torch Drive was reported to be "going strong" in the area by Mrs. Madge Eilbaum, Belleville-Sumpter Chairman, and Mrs. Mack Stillwagon in Romulus.

The BPW was sponsoring a visit of a Red Cross bloodmobile at Belleville High.

Newlyweds in the area included Rachel Smeets and Roy Akers; Mary Lou Sexton and David Fenn; and Betty Baird and E. Curt Gerchow. Planning nuptials were Jeranne Chapp and Joseph Jackson and Flora Whyte and J. Van Wormer.

Huron High was defeated 26-20 by Country Day in the closing minutes of the game and Romulus lost to Taylor Center 20-12.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:
I did want to thank you for your cooperation and advertising our Huron Valley Youth for Christ rallies. We feel that this is a real service to the community but we want to acknowledge our deepest appreciation to you for your willingness to help in this way.

We are convinced that the teens of this country so desperately need direction and we count it a privilege that you in a sense are a co-worker in helping us in striving to communicate to them in these teen rallies.

We feel it would be negligent on our part not to occasionally relate to you the feeling within us that your helpfulness is needed and appreciated. So please accept this as our way of saying, "thank you".

KINGSIZE SPLASH PARTY — Publicity agents are always trying to dream up new stunts for an important event. This scene took place at the dedication of the first Boeing 737 jetliner when stewardesses representing all the major airlines broke a bottle of champagne on the aircraft's wing. As is evident, the coordination was near perfect and the girls all had a champagne spray much to the amusement of several hundred spectators witnessing the ceremony.

4-H Horse Leader Meet Held

ROMULUS — Christian Fischer of Wayne Road, Romulus and Mr. Ed Kentala of Huron River Drive, New Boston attended the 4-H Horse Leader Training Conference at Camp Kett in Tustin, Michigan, Oct. 11 and 12. About 100 adult leaders and a few teen leaders were in attendance from all over the state.

The majority of the leaders are in their first year and this people. Keith Forbush, 4-H leader who resides in Dearborn, Carolyn Bay of Clare, member of the 4-H Developmental Committee and Dr. Dick Dunn, Extension Livestock Specialist, Animal Husbandry Department of M.S.U. showed movies on the Fitting and Showing of Horses, Western Pleasure and Horsemanship and Grooming. Slides and a lecture were given on trimming and grooming for show.

Fischer and Kentala are the Quarter Horse. These people are well known throughout the state and are always willing workers in regard to young 4-H members.

There will be more information on the above mentioned programs at the next horse leaders' meeting to be held at the 4-H Fairgrounds, Belleville, Nov. 13, at 8:00 p.m.

They enjoyed their trip very much as the leaves are changing and the colors were just fabulous along the countryside.

The Thunderbird 4-H Club will have their regular meeting today, Wednesday, Oct. 16, at the Fischer residence. Final plans will be made for the hay-ride to be held at the Beaty Farm on Bog Road, Belleville.

The Gentle Hunter

By JIM FITZGERALD

I don't know anything on earth that gives me personally more excitement than waiting for a bird to come over my gun. It's the nearest thing to heaven in human terms that I know," said the Rt. Rev. David Cashman, Roman Catholic Bishop of Brighton, England. He had just bagged a brace of quail.

Many big city newspapers published Rev. Cashman's eloquent blessing of hairy chests and shattered birds. I don't know why. Perhaps because it was refreshing to hear a priest say something that had nothing to do with the pill.

Anyway, when I read what excited Bishop Cashman, I said to myself: "Yeah, he thinks killing birds is great but he's never stalked coho salmon in Bear Creek. He's never hunted frogs in my son's closet. He doesn't know what adventure is."

COHO ARE not minnows, you know. Many of them weigh 15 pounds or more. And there was this big bunch of them almost plugging Bear Creek near Manistee, Mich. Ordinarily, coho are caught with pole and line and bait, the same as other fish. But this is a tedious, time-consuming operation.

A single coho on a hook can struggle an hour before giving up. And while the fisherman fights this one lousy coho; hundreds of others have time to escape. A terrible thing. Obviously, something more effective than this popgun warfare was required if Bear Creek were to be cleared of the dreaded coho.

The brave fishermen proved equal to the task. While crowds cheered they grabbed clubs and waded right into the attacking coho, swinging mightily. They knocked those fish senseless and scooped them up with large nets. They gutted those fish right there on the banks and carted them away in washtubs. The water was bloody, and the air was heavy with the smell of battle. But not one fisherman was lost. American ingenuity and plain old fashioned guts had prevailed again!

This was not outdoor fun enjoyed by a bunch of goof-offs who should have been at work. This was civil defense. A Conservation Dept. official, obviously awed, gave an apt description:

"This is not sport fishing by any stretch of the imagination," he said. "This is a mob attack on the stream."

MY BATTLE with the frog was more modest, I suppose. But this was not a field and stream encounter where the hunter is prepared and armed. This was in my own home and I was defending my wife and children and all I've worked so hard for all these years. And I did it without a weapon. I didn't even have a license pinned to my back.

No one knows for sure how the frog got into the house. Most likely it squeezed through a screen door which can't be closed tight because of my wife's watermelon jungle. Our daughter Chrissie discovered the frog in the hallway early one morning. It hopped over her foot. Chrissie screamed while I was shaving and the first blood was therewith let.

The frog disappeared into son Eddie's room with me hot on the trail. My wife was already on the phone to her favorite realtor. "If a frog can get in, so can a snake," she said. "This house is for sale."

I could hear the frog inside Eddie's closet. I grabbed a baseball bat and set forth without a glance backward. Invading a 10-year-old boy's closet is similar to being crushed under Macey's toyland and the locker room at Tiger Stadium. But I didn't leave a dirty sock unturned and I finally found the frog skulking behind a 10 pound bag full of sugar cubes swiped from Howard Johnson restaurants, coast to coast.

"ARE YOU going to kill it, Daddy?" the kids asked.

Well, I grabbed that frog and threw it into the backyard to hop again another day. I did it with a disdainful, world-weary, back-handed flip. I felt like Errol Flynn releasing Basil Rathbone even though he had Basil pinned to the floor with his sword against his gutlet.

"That's class," I explained to the children.

I could never explain it to Bishop Cashman and the coho clubbers.

A Free Press Vital To Free Elections

Those who question the importance of a free press as a vital safeguard of liberty should have had their doubts dispelled by recent events in Czechoslovakia. Among the reforms in that country was the granting of press freedom. This was one of the straws that broke the camel's back and brought on the invasion by Soviet Russia. The communist hard-line dictators were afraid their system could not withstand the test of a free press.

Here in our own country as an election approaches, every act and utterance of candidates is subjected to the views and comments of thousands of editors, and this stimulates the thoughtful weighing of candidates and issues in the minds of millions of voting citizens.

A free press is as much a part of the election process in our U.S. Republic as the actual act of going into a voting booth.

No doubt there are the experts who can come forth with statistics to show that the influence of the press is negligible in deciding the fate of candidates. This may be so, but in nations where there is no free press, elections are a farce.

A free press and a free nation are one and the same thing, and no one realizes that better than the Russians.

STATE OF MICHIGAN
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
LANSING 48203

September 12, 1968

Dear Fellow Citizens:

I write to ask your support for Mr. Dale Wagenknecht who is a candidate for election as Representative to the Michigan Legislature from the 38th district in which you live. Dale is a capable man, and will make an excellent legislator. He deserves your support.

The election of men like Dale Wagenknecht is essential to the future progress of Michigan — men who will put the public interest first. Do you remember a short while back when our State was in great trouble bankrupt both financially and in its services to the people? Compare that situation with today.

Six years ago I asked the people of Michigan to give me a chance to show what a new approach to solving our problems could do. The people gave me that chance, and the results have been good for all the State. Virtually every aspect of Michigan government has been revitalized and improved. Better management of your money has allowed us to substantially increase state services. Aid to education at all levels has been dramatically increased. Good starts have been made in combating pollution, military, and disease. Special interest government has been replaced by government in the public interest.

To continue this progress, we need the presence and help of men like Dale Wagenknecht in our Legislature. I endorse him and I ask you to support him on November 5th.

Sincerely,
George Romney

County Votes Nov. 5 on Home Rule

Two County-wide ballot propositions — a county charter commission proposal and community college financing — will be on the Nov. 5 election ballot in Wayne County in addition to various state and local propositions. The charter commission proposal will be designated County Home Rule Proposition. It was placed on the ballot by the County Board of Supervisors at the urging of a 99-member citizens committee.

Approval would establish a 35-member Charter Commission to draft a proposed county home rule charter for consideration by the voters in a later election. No tax proposal is tied to the ballot proposition. Nor would it affect the present relationship between local communities and the County. THE CITIZENS group, known as the Committee of 99, conducted a year-long study and reported to the Board of Supervisors that county home rule could result in "significant improvement" of Wayne County government. Michigan cities have had home rule since 1909.

The Committee of 99, representing all areas of the County, reported that county home rule could give the voters a more direct voice in County affairs, eliminate duplication and overlapping of functions among County agencies, create more direct accountability to the voters, and result in more economical financing of County services.

The citizens committee described the present County government as a "horse-and-buggy" structure which has changed little since the mid-19th Century.

ORGANIZATIONS FAVORING the County Home Rule Proposition include the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce and the Wayne County AFL-CIO Council.

Basic features of a charter county government would be direct election of a county executive similar to a "mayor" — a post which does not exist at present — plus an elected county legislative body of five to 35 members.

The community college proposition proposes a 2½-mill property levy ($2.50 per $1,000 of equalized valuation) to finance a Wayne County Community College system established by the voters last June.

The proposal was placed on the ballot by the Wayne County Community College Board of Trustees which was elected in the June election. No financing plan was voted on at that time.

AT ST. PAUL'S

Bonnie Carey Is Autumn Bride Of Donald McLeod

Two tall candelabrum and arrangements of white daisy mums and pom poms graced the altar of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, New Boston, as Bonnie Carey approached her waiting bridegroom, Donald McLeod, on the arm of her father.

The Rev. Daniel Richert presided at the double ring nuptials September 28 at six o'clock in the evening with some 100 friends and relatives attending.

Elizabeth Wally, as soloist, was accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Daniel Richert.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Carey, of 32624 King road, New Boston, Bonnie appeared in a traditional white creation of Chantilly lace fashioned with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and wristpoint sleeves. Seed pearls and iridescents frosted the bodice and front of the bouffant skirt which drifted in tiers into a V-shaped chapel train. Her pouf veil of silk illusion fell in four tiers to mid-back length from a lace petaled headpiece studded with pearls and crystals. Completing her bridal finery was a cascade arrangement of white carnations, orange roses and trailing ivy.

MAID OF HONOR was Beverlie Swartz, of Wayne, donned a lime green peau de soie frock fashioned with a lace covered bodice. Styling details on the dress included a scoop neckline, short sleeves and an A-line skirt. Back interest was created with the use of a floating panel inset with matching lace.

Her headpiece was a peau de soie bow encircled with tiny flowerlets and edged with a brief veil and her colonial bouquet was comprised of matching daisy mums.

Bridesmaids, all from New Boston, wore identical ensembles in pastel colors. Pam Carey and Gayle Carey, both cousins of the bride, wore apricot and yellow, respectively, while Shelley Carey, the bride's sister, and Tina Carey, a cousin, appeared in yellow and apricot for their roles as junior attendants.

Their headdresses and flowers were made to match their gowns.

THE BRIDEGROOM, who resided at 1119 Thirteenth street, Wyandotte, is the son of Mrs. Marie McLeod, of 14835 Greenfield, Detroit. For best man, he selected Robert Nagy, of Allen Park. Ushers were the bride's brother, Tim Carey, and Jack Burdack, of Detroit. Dan Carey, the bride's 10-year old brother, was ringbearer. At the reception, which followed at the Romulus Progressive Club, guests were greeted by Mrs. Carey in a blue lace gown beaded in silver at the neckline. Mrs. McLeod chose for her son's wedding a frock of plum velvet with a lavender overskirt. Both mothers added white orchids to their ensembles.

Following a week-long honeymoon in Northern Michigan, the newlyweds took up residence at 6868 Middlepoint, Dearborn.

MRS. ROBERT J. HERINGTON

Emmanuel Baptist Church Scene Of October 12 Vows

An evening ceremony at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Belleville, read by the Rev. H. Mark Holladay, united in marriage Brenda Lois Alford and Robert John Herington, both of Belleville.

Some 100 guests were assembled for the October 12 double ring nuptials which were followed by a reception in the church parlors.

Both 1967 graduates of Belleville High School, the young couple's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John William Alford, of 45145 Jeannette, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Herington, of 42940 E. Huron River drive.

WALKING TO the altar with her father, Brenda appeared in a peau de soie satin creation designed with a lace empire bodice with a ruffled lace neckline and long sleeves ruffled at the wrist. Back interest was created with the use of an empire train which fell to chapel length as she walked.

A Dior bow secured her fingertip illusion veil and she held a white Bible covered with white roses and carnations.

Mrs. Allen Buttignoli, of Romulus, sister of the bridegroom, was asked to be matron of honor. Bridesmaids were identical twin sisters, Deborah and Diana Allgood, cousins of the bride from Belleville. Nine-year old La Donna Allgood served as junior attendant.

Identically dressed, their formal gowns were of pink peau de soie satin with Sabrina necklines, bell sleeves, and empire waists accented by detachable trains. Their Dior bow headgear was in matching pink and they carried red and pink carnations which graduated in size from the honor matron's to the junior bridesmaid's.

Wearing a miniature version of the pink frocks was eight-year old Diana Gillespie, daughter of the Floyd R. Gillespies, of Belleville. The basket she carried was filled with pink carnations.

THE BRIDEGROOM asked his brother-in-law, Allen Buttignoli, of Romulus, to be best man. Ushers were John William Alford, Jr., brother of the bride, and Floyd R. Gillespie, Jr., who was home from Michigan State University for the occasion.

Mrs. Alford chose for her daughter's wedding a deep rose jumper-dress with a matching jacket while Mrs. Herington donned a turquoise jacket-dress. Both added harmonizing accessories and corsages of pink carnations to their ensembles.

Since honeymooning for one week in the Smokey Mountains and at Cumberland Falls, Kentucky, the newlyweds returned here until November 4 when P.F.C. Herington will report to Oakland, California and then to Vietnam. His bride will make her home with her parents until his return.

Brenda attended Georgetown College in Georgetown, Kentucky for one year and is currently employed in the U.S. Motor Vehicle Control Program at Willow Run Airport. Bob graduated from a welding school in Detroit and was employed at McLouth Steel Corporation, in Trenton, prior to his induction last spring.

The Coconut Palm — "tree of life" called by millions. Truly this strange palm is by far the most useful of all God's trees. What other tree is there that provides not only material to build an entire house, but most of the furnishings, too: chairs, beds, mattresses, carpets, brooms, cups, saucers — even soap and toothbrushes? That provides clothes for the whole family? That gives a fisherman materials to build his boat and to equip it with sails, ropes, fishing lines and nets? That not only cooks your food but provides food to cook — and a variety of drinks? (A single good nut has as much protein as a quarter-pound of beefsteak.) On the tree's products, you could live almost forever!

HOME FROM VIETNAM

BACK ON home ground again after a year's duty in Vietnam is Sp/5 Ron Kittle, son of the Earl Kittles, of Alden drive, who drove out to Fort Lewis, Washington to meet him and bring him back to Belleville. Enroute home the threesome stopped in Baldwin, California for a week's visit with the Tom Martins, formerly of Belleville; did the tourist bit at Disneyland, drove across the border into Tijuana, and viewed Grand Canyon and many more scenic and historical spots on the nine-day trip homeward.

On their return to Belleville they were feted at a welcome home party planned by good friends and neighbors, the Clayton Bourques. The couple, spreading the word to the Alden drive circuit, had about 25 friends and relatives in on the surprise gesture for the soldier and his folks.

Ron will be home for one more week, then it's back to U.S. Army duty at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

7,000 MILES FOR HARDENS

THAT TRAVELIN' pair, the Wilbur Hardens, have done it again! Stowing their suitcases and paraphernalia in their Cadillac, they departed September 26 for a three weeks vacation to California and Florida. This is nothing new for the Hardens - they've done it a number of times! The amazing part of the story lies in the fact that this couple has already celebrated 55 years of wedded bliss and Mr. H. gives his age as 72. (Mrs. Harden's not talking.)

Well, now, as the 'Bard of Belleville' tells it, they proceeded via Denver and Reno to Vacaville, California where they visited his cousin and husband, Sonnie and Alva Knicely, at Traverse Air Force Base before continuing onto Ontario, California for some time with his brother and wife, the Guy Hardens, and to Hawthorne for a call on the Chester Utleys.

Turning their car Eastward, they motored via the Gulf Coast to Florida. While dining at a little restaurant in Texas, Wilbur mentioned his book of poems, "Those Kids of Mine," to his waitress who, in turn, told another customer (a local fellow) about his writings. It turned out to be quite a sale for Mr. H. who, having 25 volumes in his car, turned the entire stack over to the fellow-diner. (Mr. Harden's book was first published in 1943 by Lee Beard, the original owner of the Enterprise-Roman.)

Arriving in Florida, the couple spent three days in Pinellas

Park with their niece, Eva Bossenberger; visited Mrs. Harden's brother and wife, the Lester Laughmans, in Ellenton; and picked up 50-dollars worth of raffia and forms for Wilbur's basket-weaving hobby, in St. Petersburg.

The Hardens decision to leave for home might be termed "excellent timing" since they missed Hurricane Gladys' temperamental arrival by just one day.

FOUR CANDLES

FRIDAY EVENING meant 'kiddies galore' at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Sierota, of Quirk road, as they celebrated the fourth birthday of their middle daughter, Karen. Little cousins, all from Dearborn and all under five, 'helped' make the occasion something to remember for Karen and her cousin, John Michael Hand, who shared the festivities since the two were born just 12 hours apart.

Karen's big gift for the evening, a 'Tippy Tumbles' doll, proved to be the big hit of the party as boys and girls, alike, watched its acrobatic antics.

Sharing Karen's and John's birthday goodies were Joel, Andy, and Ann Marie Maguire, Kathy and Nancy Ann Sierota, Valerie and Terri Ann Sierota, and Tommie Hand. The pair's grandparents and aunts and uncles were also on hand for the occasion.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY honoree last week was Ray Dockery, son of the M.F. Dockerys who just recently moved from W. Huron River drive to a new home on Talladay road. His 11th year was observed with 34 classmates and neighbor friends who gathered for the afternoon to take part in races, contests, touch football, pony rides, mini-bike ventures, games, and refreshments.

Ray's delight was quite evident when he unwrapped the present from his parents - a complete hunting outfit and gun.

SOPHOMORES CELEBRATE

LYNN ORR didn't know there'd be cause for celebration at her home on Harmony lane last Friday night (except for hoping the Tigers would down their Plymouth opponents) but as the party began, her fellow sophomores were feeling pretty jubilant. Cause? They'd taken first place for their float entry in the Homecoming parade, "Tigers May be Hazardous to Your Health," capping three weeks of hard work and preparation. The Bob Sulimans, of Venetian avenue, opened their garage and yard for the class's project for which the sophomores are most grateful (this is a 'repeat' of last year's float building at Bob's and Fran's.) Some 50 of Lynn's classmates and friends turned out for the cider and donut celebration. Flying in from San Jose, California for the special week-end was a former classmate, Mary Jo Wilson, who was the houseguest of Mary Wojtowicz, of Grove road.

Annual Smorgasbord Held At Sierota Home

Silent Auction Is Featured

A delightful evening for some 37 members of the Home Arts Club was held last Monday evening, October 14, as the group met for its annual smorgasbord dinner. Jan Sierota invited the group to hold the seven o'clock event at her home on Quirk road where individual tables were set up in the living and dining rooms. Tall yellow tapers encircled by huge lemon and yellow crepe paper flowers were the focal point on each table. Arranged by the program committee, Jan Sierota, Carol Schanks, Helen Otter, and Jean Hanks, the settings also included napkin rings topped with miniature fruit arrangements which the group had made for the occasion.

The dinner, for members only, included such delicacies as chicken divan, Bavarian cream salads, sweet-sour meats, Italian, Chinese, Polish and Polynesian recipes as well as an array of desserts including Hungarian pastries and Danish tortes and the very-american banana cream pie, to name but a few.

After dining the group moved into the family room where a brief business meeting was held followed by the highlight of the evening - a silent auction.

Each member was asked to bring a 'white elephant' which was displayed on a low table for inspection. The group was then given an opportunity to bid (by paper and pencil) on any item they desired. The results provided many a happy 'customer' as well as a number of laughs as the hostess conducted the activities.

For the November meeting, members and guests are to meet as usual at the Belleville High School home economics room.

MR & MRS RUSSELL M. NIEMAN

Nieman, Wysocki Nuptials Read At St. John's, Wayne

St. John's Lutheran Church, in Wayne, was the setting for the September wedding of Sandra K. Wysocki, of Flat Rock, and Russell M. Nieman, of Romulus. Pastor Robert Baer officiated at the five-thirty nuptials which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Wysocki, of 28476 N. Wesley avenue, Flat Rock, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Nieman, of 13600 Wahrman road, Romulus.

For the double ring vows, attended by some 400 persons, the altar was appointed with lighted tapers and arrangements of mums and gladioli. White bows, ivy and candles were used to mark the pews.

HOLDING A colonial bouquet of white mums, roses, and baby's breath, Sandra was escorted up the aisle by her father. For her wedding day, she selected a toe-touching chiffon-organza fashion designed with a scoop neckline and elbow sleeves. The A-line creation, distinguished by a cathedral train, was frosted with Chantilly lace appliques and seed pearls. The same combination was used to edge the hemline of the dress.

Her three-tiered silk illusion veil drifted to elbow-length from a lace headpiece embellished with lilies of the valley and seed pearls.

As her sister's maid of honor, Linda Wysocki, donned an empire-style frock with the bodice of aqua and white lace and slim-line skirt in aqua. Avocado ribbon traced the high-rise waistline and cascaded to the floor at the back. Aqua-centered white daisies were also used as accents at the waist. She wore a matching headdress and carried a colonial arrangement of white and aqua mums and baby's breath.

In matching ensembles were the quartet of attendants, Donna Lewis, of Wyandotte; Darice Bock, of Flat Rock; Mrs. Shirley Nieman, of Westland, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; and Mrs. Sharon Haener, of New Boston, the bridegroom's sister.

BEST MAN was the bridegroom's brother from Westland, Robert Nieman. The corps of ushers included Murlyn Nieman and Alvin Dorow, both cousins from Westland; Greg Haener, his brother-in-law, from New Boston; and another cousin, James Kessler, from Ann Arbor.

The Elks Hall, Flat Rock, was reserved for the reception which followed after which the newlyweds departed for a 10-day motor trip to the Pocono Mountains and Niagara Falls.

Aqua chiffon, beaded at the neckline, was worn by Mrs. Wysocki for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Nieman chose lime green shantung and harmonizing accessories. Both mothers added corsages of white roses and aqua carnations to their costumes.

A 1966 graduate of Flat Rock High School, the bride is currently employed by Prudential Insurance. Her husband graduated in 1963 from Romulus High and is attending Henry Ford Community College while employed at the Ford Motor Company.

The couple's new address is 9688 Manor Avenue, Allen Park.

McFarland Lecture Set

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, noted lecturer, educator and writer, will speak in Detroit Monday, Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. at Masonic Auditorium. "Guarding America Tonight" is the theme of his speech. Dr. McFarland is considered America's foremost public speaker on "Americanism." His messages are aimed at selling America to Americans, and deal with the principles involved in preserving the great dreams set forth in the first Constitutional Convention. Long an exponent on "America First," McFarland defines the "American System" as an economic system of free enterprise; a political system guaranteed by law; and a system where each individual is sovereign, endowed by his Creator with certain inalienable rights. McFarland has been labeled "America's Number One Air Passenger" and travels literally hundreds of thousands of miles each year for his speaking engagements. Generally acknowledged as the nation's most eloquent exponent of faith in our country and its peoples, McFarland elicits enthusiasm and hearty response in all sections of the country. The speech is one of a lecture series sponsored by Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America. It is open to the public and complimentary tickets may be obtained through the local Alexander Hamilton office by phoning or by writing the Home Office in Farmington, Michigan. Past experience of standing-room-only audiences, however, suggests that tickets be obtained early to assure seating accommodations.

Community College Here Supported By Jaycees

James R. McCartney, campaign coordinator for the community college question in Western Wayne County, issued the following statement this week:

"The Community College for Wayne County is a dream in the eyes of those aware that the present higher education in this metropolitan area cannot meet the student population explosion, thus starving our community of an educational opportunity and leaving us with only a dream.

"With this in mind the Jaycees of Westland at their recent ladies night program adopted and are stepping in and giving assistance to a drive to support the 2 1/2 mills that will appear on the Nov. 5 ballot -- to make a community college a reality.

"The Jaycees from around Wayne County are as individual chapters adopting this project and aggressively endorsing the community college.

"MANY OF the counties of Michigan have realized the value of a community college and thus are benefiting from it -- yet Wayne County, with its highest population concentration, does not have a community college for the whole county. The present neighborhood colleges have steadily increasing enrollments. Students refused admission for lack of space will soon be a reality.

"Those that have a community college system know it opens up educational opportunities to people who might not benefit from education beyond high school because of college facilities, personal finances, or lack of high grades that open the doors of many institutions. The college maintains its academic standing by being selective in those it advances. It gives each the opportunity to gain a higher education at a lower tuition.

"Grants, loans and scholarships are made available to students unable to meet the low tuition rate.

"The community college is well known for its flexibility to adapt to the rapidly changing community. This ability in the community college can keep pace with the vocational-technical advances as well as the academic programs."

PCHA Nurses are Panelists In Heart Care Training Sessions

WAYNE - The patient walked arm-in-arm with his wife down the corridor and into the chapel of a local PCHA hospital. Their hearts were full of quiet, almost peaceful gratitude.

An airlines pilot from the west coast, the patient's heart had several weeks earlier nearly failed him. In the first few critical hours of hospitalization in the Coronary Care Unit of the hospital, the heart began to twitch and contract.

But for the presence of a nurse specially trained to care for heart patients, as well as the availability of electronic equipment capable of restoring normal rhythm to the fibres of the heart, the patient might have died.

Even though this was her first experience applying a defibrillator to an actual patient, the nurse acted surely and swiftly, and she electrically jarred the twitching heart back into normalcy.

SIX WEEKS later the pilot is home in California. He carries within him memories of the coronary care nurse, and a small device known as a pacemaker.

Neatly and unobtrusively embedded in his chest, the device provides sufficient electrical current by means of a tiny battery to keep his heart beating steadily and regularly.

And now, eight weeks later, five nurses from PCHA unit hospitals have roles as panelists in special training sessions in caring for heart patients. They are: Jane Ensor, R.N. and Alice Range, R.N., both from Seaway Hospital, and Jean Lewis, R.N., Carole Kashawick, R.N., and Alberta Stevers, R.N., from Outer Drive Hospital.

Called "Down River Heart Days," the sessions will be held at the Presidential Inn in Southgate on Oct. 23 and 30, and Nov. 6 and 13. Sponsored by the Downriver Heart

Information Center of the Michigan Heart Association, the sessions are free.

An anonymous Trenton woman whose husband was a recent victim of heart disease, is bearing the expense of the nurses' training sessions in the care of coronary patients.

The five PCHA nurses participating in the training sessions illustrate leadership by PCHA hospitals in providing modern coronary care.

All PCHA hospitals are equipped with complete coronary care units.

HITS "VOTER DISREGARD"

Boyle Challenges William D. Ford To Take Stand on Major Issues

WESTLAND — John F. Boyle, Republican Candidate for Congress, the 15th U.S. Congressional District, has charged his opponent, William D. Ford, with "a lack of regard for his constituents — as demonstrated by his refusal to debate the issues, his crime-coddling voting record, and his personal conduct."

Boyle, who launched his campaign in August and has been meeting the people of the district ever since, labeled Ford's unwillingness to campaign in the district "a shameful display of disregard for the voters, who want to know where their representatives in government stand on the major issues."

Boyle has challenged Ford to take a stand on the issues of Vietnam, crime, inflation, and poverty and welfare in articles printed in local newspapers.

"He has refused to reply or even release position statements to the press," Boyle said. "By remaining silent, Mr. Ford leaves us no other alternative than to believe he goes all the way with the Johnson-Humphrey administration."

"BILL FORD has rarely shown his face in the district since the primary — unless it was to get his picture taken with a visiting dignitary," stated Boyle. "This is a flagrant denial of the right of the voters to hear the views of a major candidate. Ford, as the incumbent in the district, hopes by hiding from the people and the issues, his constituents will, like sheep, blindly cast their vote for a familiar name, never bothering to check his record."

Said Boyle, "The voters I have met have shown a deep concern for today's problems and a real interest in finding out where I stand on the issues they feel are important. Unfortunately, Mr. Ford's contentment to just sit on the sidelines removes any chance for the voters to question him in person about his views and his record."

On the subject of Ford's record, Boyle had some very specific charges. "Congressman Ford has consistently voted against anti-crime legislation, including action to discontinue federal aid to students participating in riots and to make it a federal offense to use poverty program funds to foster public disorder. Fortunately, reason prevailed and the vital legislation passed despite Ford's dissent."

"WITH THE rise in crime of deep concern to the people of the district, Mr. Ford's frequent minority stand against crime discouraging legislation demonstrates a clear lack of awareness of the attitudes of his constituents," Boyle added.

"Mr. Ford's personal conduct also raises some doubt about his respect for the dignity of his office,"

Boyle continued. "In 1966, he took a 33-day trip around the world for which he received 46 days expense money. There is no evidence to show that, after this fact was exposed in a national newspaper last year, the money was returned."

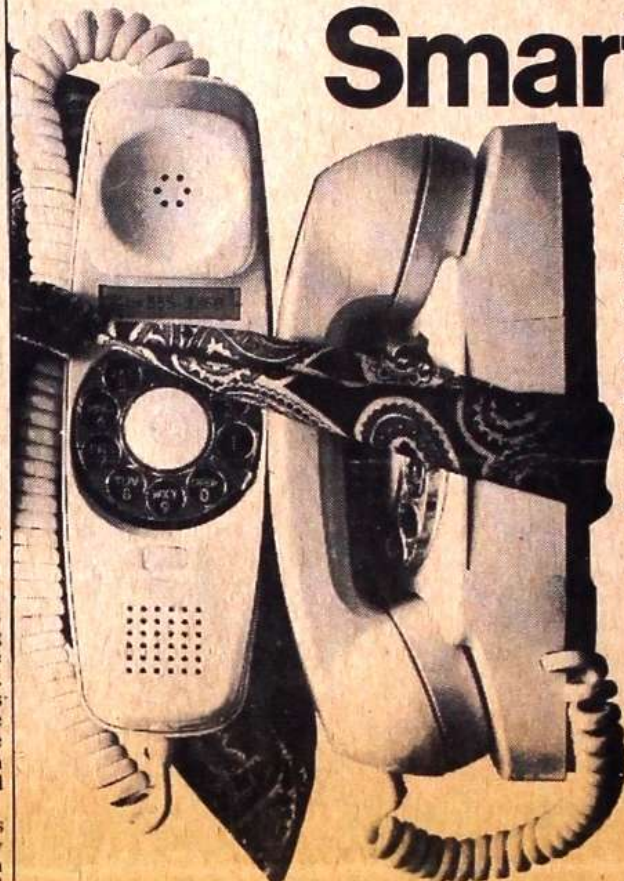

"A Washington Post article connected William Ford with questionable fund-raising dinners designed to get money from federal employees who, in exchange, receive support on such matters as pay hikes. Ford was also instrumental in getting the husband of a local newspaper editor appointed Postmaster. In return, that newspaper has never challenged Ford on any of his actions for the last four years. "Budget padding, questionable fund-raising, and cronyism have no place in the life of a Congressman. The people have a right to receive responsible, corruption-free representation."

"I ask for the chance to show the people of the 15th District they can have a change and can have a voice in congress that is responsive to their needs."

The Sea of Galilee is actually a lake.

Greenfield Village Marked By Long Historical Tradition

DEARBORN — On Oct. 21, 1929, Thomas A. Edison sat at his work-table on the second floor of his Menlo Park laboratory. His long-time associate, Francis Jehl, stood ready to man the pump; nearby two men watched anxiously, straining to see what was about to happen. In a far corner, another group waited; all eyes were trained on the man seated in the yellow chair.

Edison nodded, and Jehl started pumping. A murmur rose from the corner: then all was silent. Edison reached for a wire, and suddenly the miracle happened. The tiny globe mounted on the wood upright began to glow: electric light was produced in an incandescent bulb.

No, that's not a typographical error back there. 1929 is the right date, and it happened just the way you read it. There is one thing, though; what happened in 1929 was re-enactment of the event that took place 50 years before. Everything else was the same; the carbonized cotton filament, the hand-blown bulb, the Sprengle Mercury Pump, and the familiar clapboard building.

The location was changed though. Instead of in New Jersey, the building now was located in Greenfield Village in Dearborn. And the people were different, too. Only Edison and Jehl were left from the original cast. The two men standing close to Edison were Henry Ford and President Herbert Hoover. In the group in the corner stood as many invited dignitaries and reporters as could crowd into the laboratory. The occasion was the world-wide celebration of Light's Golden Jubilee and the simultaneous dedication of the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village.

A year earlier, Thomas Edison signed his name in the wet cement of the symbolic "cornerstone", dated it, and embedded Luther Burbank's spade in the middle to signify the union of industry, science and agriculture. Henry Ford's dream was now a reality, and the Edison Institute, as the two institutions were jointly named, would soon be ready for the public.

Mr. Ford estimated that someday as many as 300,000 persons every year would visit his 260-acre complex 15 miles from the heart of Detroit to see 300 years of American history come to life. He was wrong, however. For the past several years, the Museum and Village have welcomed many more than a million visitors annually to this unique collection of antiques, artifacts, machinery, and buildings which shows graphically how our forebears lived and worked, tracing this country's development from colonial days to the early 20th century.

In 1929, Greenfield Village had 28 buildings. Today there are some 100 shops, stores, and houses there in a community setting, visually depicting a combination of rural and early-urban life from an earlier America. Many of the buildings are associated with famous Americans. The Wright Cycle Shop, for instance, where Wilbur and Orville Wright built components for the airplane in which they made their historic flight at Kitty Hawk stands there. It came to the Village from its original site in Dayton, Ohio. It was rebuilt, along with the Wright Homestead, under the supervision of Orville Wright himself.

There are others. The Webster House, where Noah Webster worked on his dictionary; the Luther Burbank Birthplace; Ann Arbor House, where Robert Frost lived while at the University of Michigan; the Logan County Courthouse, where Abraham Lincoln once practiced law and which houses the chair he was sitting in the night of his assassination at Ford's Theater; and, of course, Thomas Edison's Menlo Park compound.

Other buildings are included because they are significant in American history, or because they are typical of a certain period, or because they mark a milestone in the country's technological development. There is a windmill from Cape Cod, a covered bridge from Pennsylvania, a firehouse from New Hampshire with a 19th-century fire engine, and a limestone cottage and out-buildings from England dating from about 1620 which stands in the Village to show the kind of dwellings the first settlers could have known before coming to the colonies.

Around the Village "green" are the Martha-Mary Chapel, century-old Clinton Inn, the Town Hall, and the Scotch Settlement School. On the outskirts of the Village is the industrial area containing saw mills, a cider mill, a sugar mill, a grist mill and many other workshops and factories.

Divided into three main sections, the Decorative Arts Galleries, the Street of Early American Shops, and the Mechanical Arts Hall, the collection touches on every aspect of American life over the last 300 years. There are displays of the fine china, silver, and furniture used by some early Americans. There are the carriages they rode in, the money they used, the toys their children played with, the stoves they cooked on, the guns some shot their food with, and row upon row of the steam engines and early dynamos that supplied them with the power for their developing industries.

All of the exhibits are completely comprehensive. The locomotive section, for instance, displays not only many trains from several different periods, including a replica of the first practical steam engine built in 1829 and the 600-ton Allegheny of the 1940's, but also a number of early track signals and a train station complete with baggage carts, luggage and lanterns. In the automotive section, the world's first three-color, four-way traffic signal hangs still working above the most comprehensive collection of antique, classic, and famous automobiles in the world.

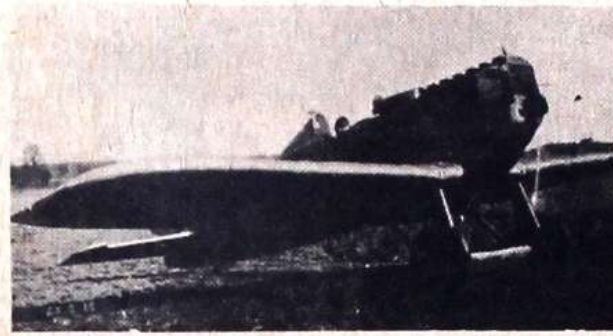

The Museum offers hours of fascinating study for the serious visitor and a multitude of enchanting discoveries for young and old alike. There is something there for everyone. Like the Village, the Museum's charm never fades and renewed excitement awaits every returning visitor.

EARTH-RENDING EVENT awoke the world to aviation when on July 25, 1909, a Frenchman Louis Bleriot flew this bundle of canvas and wire across the English Channel for the first time. His flight time was 37 minutes for the 25 miles without guide or compass.

POST WW I era brought demand for speed. This tiny Martin MS-1 powered by a Lawrence 60 engine was a forerunner of the famous record shattering pontooned Schnieder Cup Racers that were to follow.

GERMANY'S BID — From Germany came the Junkers J-7, an early bird bid for a fast monoplane racer or fighter. This was one of the very first all-metal single-seat, high-powered airplanes in the world and years ahead its time.

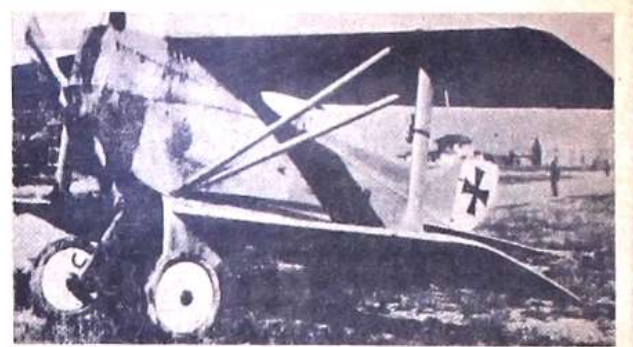

Early Planes Were Odd, But They Actually Flew

By Bill Balogh

AIRPLANES OF TODAY are taken for granted, just about the same as the automobile and locomotive has been in recent years. The many multi-engine jet passenger airliners that streak through the skies at near sonic speeds are far beyond the dreams of those early aviation pioneers of less than 50 years ago.

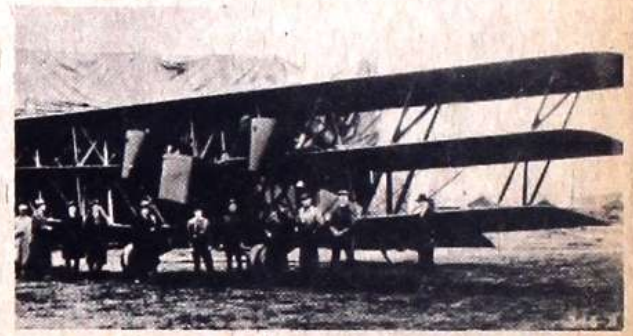

In answer to the many calls from readers of "This Flying

WORLD WAR I changed the airplane profiles to many new horizons. An Austrian aircraft designer made this contribution for the German Imperial Air Service with a stubby experimental Lohner fighter. While ahead of its time, it could not compete with other German aircraft.

EARLY 20'S RACER high powered and streamline became the keynote when the first retractable landing gear. This Dayton-Wright PS-1 was one of the fastest aircraft for its era.

FIRST SKY GIANT dwarfed any airplane in the world when the Army introduced its Boeing GA-X armored attack triplane on March 9, 1923. It's a far cry from today, 45 years later, as Boeing B-52 "Stratofortress" powered by eight jet engines patrols the world with nuclear weapons at 600 miles per hour, only a few hours from any target in the world.

World," your reporter has dug deep into the files to come up with some of the old "oddballs" of 40 to 50 years ago.

These aircraft were for "real". They were highly important stepping stones to sleek modern jet fighters and civilian airliners of today. Most of these pictured in today's column were "one-offs", some flew to make history and aid research, others were trial and error experiments in getting off the ground, but they did fly, and the pilots of that era flew on sheer guts and nerve in these buckets of bolts and baling wire.

They all left their niche in carving out man's dreams to fly. In three wars they have changed the entire concept of military operations and for the traveler it has become the easiest, fastest and safest way to travel.

But these early birds paved the way, and as one caller put it, "they should be remembered and saluted." So here are a few of the "oddballs" of 50 years ago...but they really flew...

Morgan Blasts 'Buck Passing'

PLYMOUTH—Donald C. Morgan, a candidate for the Wayne County Charter Commission, today warned outcounty residents against blaming sheriff's deputies for "the sins of our out-dated county bureaucracy."

In a statement issued from Morgan's campaign headquarters, the Republican candidate commented on charges that some Western Wayne County townships were receiving sub-standard protection from the Sheriff's Road Patrol.

"We should all remember that the sheriff's deputies have a demanding and, in most cases, thankless job to perform," Morgan said.

"But as long as our antiquated county government structure allows the various bureaucrats to pass the buck from one agency to another we can never expect much improvement,"

Morgan said the present "buck passing" in county government encouraged him to seek election Nov. 5 to a seat on the County Home Rule Charter Commission.

"County government must be streamlined," he said. "We must find a way to stop politicians from passing the buck and shirking their responsibilities."

As an example, Morgan cited the current controversy over police protection involving residents of a subdivision in Plymouth Township.

He noted the problems encountered by Lauren Janusz, president of the Lake Pointe Homeowners Association, when he tried last week to obtain improved traffic controls within the subdivision.

"First he went to the Sheriff," Morgan said, "and the Sheriff passed the buck to the Road Commission."

"If things run true to form, we can now look forward to the formation of a few committees, an occasional meeting with minor officials and, eventually, a very, very quiet death to the whole idea."

Morgan asserted that a full-time elected county chief executive, which could be provided in a home rule charter, would not be able to ignore local problems as easily.

"Such an administrative head would have to be more responsive to the needs of the people than are the members of the Road Commission, who have never even run for election," Morgan said.

"If a man has his political career riding on his performance, he will make sure things are run properly or the voters will throw him out of office," the candidate added.

Morgan is one of three Republicans seeking the nomination to the commission from the 27th Charter district, which includes Plymouth, Belleville, and the south half of Taylor, as well as the townships of Plymouth, Canton, Romulus, Huron, Sumpter and Van Buren.

A graduate of the University of Michigan Law School, Morgan is the only attorney seeking the GOP nomination.

became the first nuclear submarine to be built in Massachusetts. The ship's mission is that of a fast attack nuclear submarine with her primary mission being to seek out and destroy enemy ships of any type, if the need should arise.

The Whale has been specially designed to operate quietly and indefinitely at high speeds while completely submerged. She is also equipped with the most advanced sonar and fire control systems.

While attending the

W. C. Fields, Imogene Coca, and Jack Benny top the Famous Early Movies series bill at the Henry Ford Museum Sunday, Oct. 27, in a tribute to "The Talking Comics."

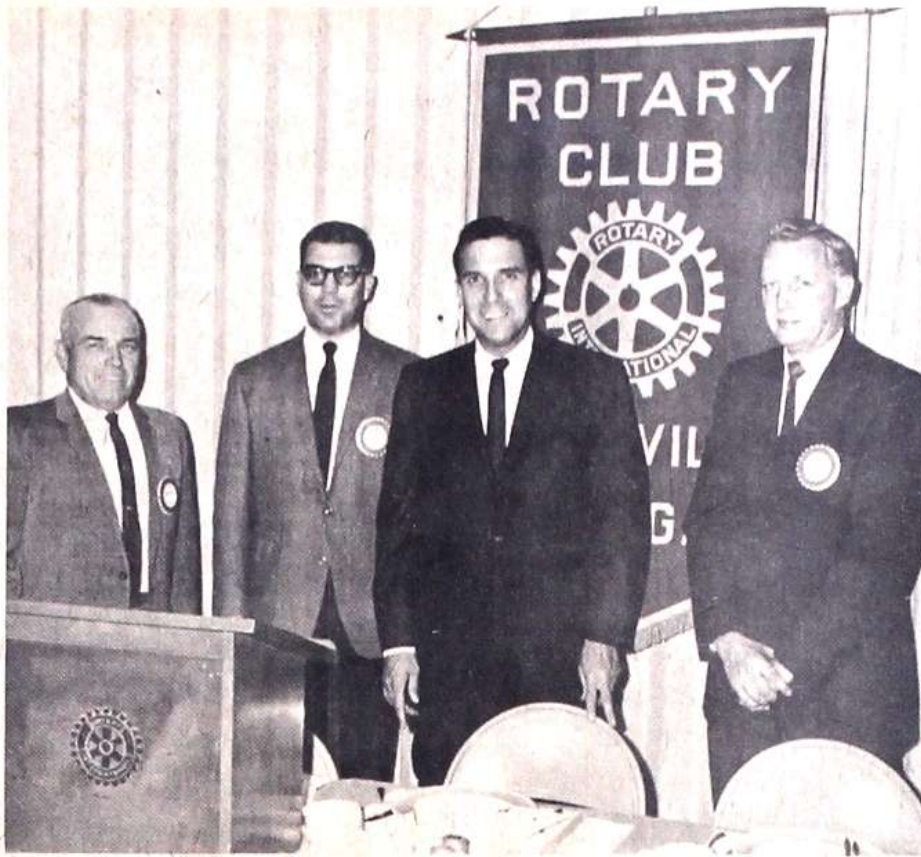

The films range from "Cab Waiting" with Jack Benny at his wistful best to W. C. Fields' carefree slapstick in "The Dentist". Imogene Coca appears in "The Bashful Ballerina," an hilarious spoof of schools of la danse.

The Keystone Kops also appear in a sound film, "Keystone Hotel," continuing the tradition of their zany silent comedies.

All the movies are from the thirties when sound comedies came into their own by adding another dimension to the visual humor of the silent era.

Most of the film comedies at this time had backgrounds in vaudeville or the stage so that their comedy depended as much on dialogue and characterization as on pie-throwing and pratfalls.

The fun begins at 2 and 4 p.m. Sunday in the Museum Theater. The movies are free to Museum visitors.

Romulus Senior High Choir Talent-Dance Show Announced

ROMULUS—The Fourth Annual Talent Show-Dance sponsored by the Romulus Senior High School Choir will be presented Friday evening, Nov. 1, W. S. Jones, director, announced.

This event, which for the last three years has proven to be extremely popular with both teenagers and adults, will once again be presented in Cabaret style in the Romulus Senior High Gymnasium.

Participating in the show will be talented Romulus Senior High School students selected by audition. Appearing as guests during the evening will be winners from past talent shows.

As in the past, judges will include two teachers on the staff at the High School, the reigning student Homecoming Queen, a resident of the Romulus community and one individual from out-state.

IN ADDITION to providing necessary funds with which to offer partial scholarships for outstanding music students to colleges, universities or summer music camps, and awards to qualified senior music students, proceeds from this year's show may also have to be used to partially defray the costs of secured private transportation.

The latter becoming necessary due to the austerity program now in effect throughout the Romulus School System. This program prohibits the use of school transportation for all Junior and Senior High School field trips, including music concerts, festivals and similar events.

Advance sale tickets for the Talent Show-Dance may be purchased from any choir member through Thursday, Oct. 31. Tickets are students, 50 cents, adults 75 cents. General admission at the door: students, 75 cents and adults $1.

The event will begin at 8 p.m. with dancing followed by the talent show at 9:15. Refreshments will be available and everyone is both urged and invited to attend.

Miller's Saga is at UD Nov. 1-3

DETROIT—Arthur Miller's "Death of a Salesman" will open the University of Detroit Theatre season in new quarters in the Ford Life Sciences Building at 8:30 p.m. Friday through Sunday, Nov. 1-3.

The classic saga of the American dream and his failure to achieve the American dream, his exhaustion in its pursuit, his wife's poignant cry that "Attention must be paid... because he is a human being" is portrayed in three acts under the direction of James C. Rodgers, chairman of the U. of D. Theatre department.

Miller's play is the most poignant statement of man as he must face himself to have come out of the American theatre. Although the play was written in 1949 it is even more applicable in today's success oriented society.

The play will be viewed in a new setting - the tiered 225-cushioned-seat, air conditioned theatre in the Ford Life Sciences Building located northeast of the U. of D. Tower.

"Death of a Salesman" will be presented Fridays through Sundays for three weeks, Nov. 1-3, 8-10 and 15-17.

Tickets are available at $2. at the U. of D. Performing Arts Box Office in the Student Union Building on Florence.

Youth for Christ Sponsoring Teen Rally on November 2

ANN ARBOR—Huron Valley Youth for Christ will sponsor a teen rally Saturday, Nov. 2, 7:15 p.m. at the Ann Arbor High School. This will be the third rally in the current series of nine, and the rally will feature former Miss America, Vonda Kay VanDyke and the president of Gospel Films, Mr. Billy Zeoli.

The pre-rally program will feature a film built around Vonda Kay's ascent to the title of Miss America entitled, "Hey There Vonda."

The new teen chorale, "The New Dimensions" from Ann Arbor will make their premier during this rally too.

Vonda Kay VanDyke was Miss America in the year 1965. She is a singer, actress, ventriloquist, TV personality, model, commercial spokeswoman, pilot, and author.

When she won the Miss America title in 1965, she also received the title of Miss Congeniality and it was the first time in the 47 year history of the pageant that the same girl has won both titles. She has appeared on many television shows, including Ed Sullivan Show, "I've Got a Secret," "To Tell The Truth," and Art Linkletter's "Talent Scouts."

She has been involved in the making of TV commercials for Oldsmobile, Pepsi Cola, and Toni Company. She has traveled to conventions and fairs throughout the world. She is the author of two books, "That Girl In Your Mirror" and "Dear Vonda Kay."

In the last three years, she has traveled over 500,000 miles doing a variety of different types of appearances all over the United States, Canada, and Japan.

With Vonda Kay will be

Billy Zeoli. He is president of Gospel Films International, Grand Rapids, Michigan. His film production has taken him all over the world and he has appeared in films himself.

He is in great demand for his dynamic ability to communicate with teenagers. His wit and humor compliment a keen knowledge of the youth world.

The public is cordially invited to this rally. There will be no admission charged.

Winter Sports Show

DETROIT—Hundreds of snowmobiles heralded the coming of winter as the first annual Greater Michigan Snowmobile & Winter Sports Show.

The show runs through Sunday, Oct. 27 at Detroit Artillery Armory, near Northland on W. Eight Mile Rd.

On hand to meet and talk to spectators was Ralph Plaisted, the man who led an expedition to the North Pole on snowmobiles.

Champion snowmobile racers, men and women, also talked to crowds about snowmobiles and speed.

SEVERAL SNOWMOBILE Models made their debut at the show, including Massey-Ferguson and Homelite.

Besides snowmobiles, also shown are camping equipment for outdoors-minded families and winter hunters, a six-wheel-drive all-terrain vehicle, and a variety of sleds made to tow behind snowmobiles. There are special sleds for use by ice fishermen.

Also included at the armory are chain saws, portable generators, winter clothing, winter resorts and tourist association displays, and publications for snowmobilers. Michigan's Conservation Department has a display showing all snowmobile trails in state forests.

MANY SHOW spectators were seeing their first snowmobile. One of these was Mrs. Ted Lennox of Lincoln Park.

"I thought they were something like motorcycles," she said. "Now I know that a

Students To Exhibit Projects

BELLEVILLE — Three eighth grade classes at Belleville Junior High have been making projects based on medieval life and events. Mrs. Jean Sebestyen, teacher in charge, announced. These projects will be on display at the Belleville Junior High School Open House Oct. 23.

One of the outstanding projects was "Diagrams of Banners" by Ken Wald and Larry Farr. Three cloth banners were made by Dorothy McCollough. Lisa Archer made an excellent model of a manor.

There were many diagrams of weapons, but only one person, Steve Salisbury, made a full-size weapon. Pam Strand did a complete rundown on Marco Polo. A couple of interesting items were sugar cube castles done by Larry Porter and Tom Griffith. Dave Grant and Paul White made a picture of a Viking ship.

Some people gave reports which were as informative as well as interesting, about a few of the things that the eighth graders did for history.

Math Magic

BY WILLIAM LLOYD
Math Teacher

This Week: How to Add Long Columns
From: The Trachtenberg System of Basic Mathematics Parents! Students! How would you like to be a magician with numbers? Whether you are 8 or 108, with a few hours of practice, you can command numbers like they were toy soldiers using the Trachtenberg system. This system is based on a series of simplified keys. These keys will open unknown doors for you into the magic world of numbers.

Ask any student or businessman and he will tell you that adding long columns of numbers is slow, tiresome and often an inaccurate process. Here is the key to a faster, more accurate, and easier way.

First, a pencil and paper is a must. Copy down the example. (Author's note: The following process may look hard, but you will only have to do a couple of examples to find the method simple and easy.)

TO USE this new system you must remember: Never add higher than eleven. Starting at the top of the right-hand column begin adding following these simple steps.

Make up your own examples or try your checkbook. After a couple tries you will be a pro.

- (1) STOP adding when you reach (or just pass) 11. (3+1+9 STOP)
- (2) Put a line through the number when you reach (or pass) 11.
- (3) If you pass 11, subtract 11 from the total you have reached at that point. (13-11 equals 2).
- (4) Add what remains to the next number (2 add to 1)
- (5) When you reach (or pass) the next 11 stop again. (2 added to 1+5+4=12). Repeat these steps.
- (6) When you reach the end of the column, put down the total of last unless the numbers add up to 11 or more, then subtract 11 from that total (12 - 11) and put the number you have left (1) under that column.
- (7) After step 6, count up the number of times that numbers have been crossed out.(2)
- (8) Place that number under the number you computed in step 6.
- (9) Repeat the process with each column. Do that now. Your results should look like the numbers at the left. Draw a line under them.

TO GET the final result, first, add the number in the top row to the number below it and to the neighbor at the right in the bottom row (like an L), plus anything you carry. (Add: 1+2+ noneighbor 3, 7+2+2=1 and carry 1, etc.) Secondly, to get the left-hand number to your answer, bring down the left-hand number of the bottom row (1) plus anything you carried. Your answer is 14513.

Then challenge your friends or teachers. Challenge Uncle Sam's annual mathematical quiz, income tax, and you will get an A this year.

Next week: How to multiply without using tables.

(Editor's Note: This is the second of a series on The Trachtenberg Speed System of Basic Mathematics by William Lloyd, teacher at Belleville Junior High School).

7th Graders Perform

BELLEVILLE — The seventh grade students in Mrs. Helen Stokes, fourth hour social studies group were on camera last Wednesday, Oct. 15. They learned what it means to be in the T.V. business when their class was video-taped in action.

It was fun and exciting and interesting for everyone concerned. The reason for this experience was the preparation of a video-tape which will be shown to Van Buren teachers at the forthcoming institute scheduled Friday, Oct. 25. At this time the value of television as a teaching aid will be under observation and discussion.

Mrs. William Amerman was the guest speaker for Belleville Junior High School sections 7E and 7P on Oct. 10.

Mrs. Stokes' two social studies classes learned much about the structure of political parties from Mrs. Amerman, who is herself a district officer in the Republican Party.

They learned things such as the first element of a party is the Precinct Delegate, how many voters constitute a precinct, how money is earned and spent, and who writes a presidential candidate's platform.

discussions the classes have been having on political parties and platforms in lieu of the forthcoming election.

Belleville Fights To Stay Out Of Cellar

Last Chance for Tigers - Must Beat Redford Union

BELLEVILLE — It may hurt coach Jim Richendollar and his Tigers to recall last week's 19-13 loss to Plymouth, but a loss this week to winless Redford Union could be even more painful.

The loser winds up in the Suburban Conference cellar.

Neither team - Redford or Belleville - has been able to win a conference match in four tries and both have been limping with injuries.

"They're a good ball club," said Richendollar, "but I sincerely believe we're the better team. But we're going to have to go out there and prove it."

"Our offense must click or else we're in trouble," he said. Belleville did almost everything except score in their 19-13 setback against Plymouth. The defeat also spoiled the Tigers' Homecoming Festivities.

Coach Richendollar's Tigers ran a total of 72 offensive plays, got to the Plymouth 15-yard line twice without going the distance. It was Plymouth which received the first break, however.

After Belleville put together a 30 yard drive and advanced to the 38, the Tigers handed the ball over to their rivals via a fumble. Plymouth turned that miscue into a 7-0 lead, a lead which they never relinquished. Halfback Walt Lee made his way 32-yards for the initial score.

Belleville's counter-offensive, consisting of thrusts by Hampton and Gary Gentile, worked to within 15 yards of a TD.

But Plymouth's niggardly defense would not yield the remaining distance.

Plymouth increased its margin midway in the third period as Bruce Bauman plunged two-yards to get his team on the scoreboard.

Faced with a 13-0 deficit, quarterback John Yocum tried the air routes and broke the ice. He succeeded on a 22-yard pass to Bruce Bara who sprinted into the end zone for the Tigers' first tally.

Plymouth then stunned Belleville when Bob Thornbladh broke loose and ran 54-yards in the closing minutes of the period for his team's final score.

Another pass play, this time with Dick Wenzel and Chris Boyd teaming up, accounted for Belleville's second and last score. Wenzel tossed 12 yards to Boyd in the fourth period to wind up game.

Dietrick Frieberger booted the first extra point but wasn't given a chance for the second. A poor snap from center prevented the conversion try. Belleville's Mike Krawulski, end; linebacker Chris Boyd, and tackle Jim Singleton, spearheaded the Tiger defensive attack.

Coach Richendollar's boys, following their final league match, will wind up the season with a pair of non-conference games before hanging up their uniforms. They'll meet Ypsilanti, a member of the Sauk Trail, a week from Friday and will bring the curtains down at home against John Glenn.

'HOT PURSUIT' — Three Romulus gridders zero in on Rouge's Rodney Winphrey (24) who broke towards the sidelines after sweeping an end. Rouge breezed to a 33-0 halftime margin before polishing off the Eagles 33-18 on Friday.

ROMULUS — A rampaging River Rouge broke loose for 33 points in the first half against Romulus before going on to win its fourth straight league decision 33-18. The Panther victory clinched the Twin Valley Conference championship for the downriver team.

"They could have run up about any score they wanted," said Romulus coach George Pratt. "Rouge has one of the best teams I've seen all year and they deserve a lot of credit."

Apparently other coaches and sports writers agree that Rouge is powerful. The newly crowned Twin Valley champs are ranked second in the state's Class B ratings. They're undefeated in six games.

Romulus came alive in the final ten minutes of the match when the Eagles got on the scoreboard three times thanks to an interception, a one-yard plunge and an 83-yard pass play.

Cleo Gooden picked off a Rouge pass on a 20-yard line to dash into the end zone with the first Romulus TD to make it 33-6. And Waynard Schrebe's fumble recovery on the Romulus 35-yard line set up the second tally.

From their own 35-yard line, Nate Williams plowed up 24 yards then yielded to Dave Brown who lunged over from the one-yard line to score the second Eagle touchdown.

After Chris Glinski's pass to Malcolm Williams slipped off its target, Romulus received another break when Darryl Butler leaped on a stray ball at the Eagle 18.

With less than a minute to go, quarterback Glinski went to the air. He connected on an 83-yard TD pass with split left-end Frank Nesbitt who scored the final TD of the game.

THE SPORTS MERIDIAN

By Tom Mooradian

Defamation of Country

I can't figure some guys out. Take (I don't want him) John Carlos, one of the two ousted members of our U.S. Olympic track team. He says he's going to sue the U.S. Olympic Committee for "defamation of character."

I can't blame him. After what the U.S. Olympic committee did to him and for him - gave him a chance to compete in the Games at Mexico City, brought him into the spotlight among the Nations of Athletes and also gave him a chance to enshrine his name among the greats of our time - sure he should sue.

But after that farce on winner's dais, Carlos is going to have a pretty rough time proving he has any character at all.

And when he's through with his suit, I think the American people should sue him for "defamation of country."

Yes, I'm against "Black Power". And "White Power". Or "Purple Power".

But I do believe in "Rainbow Power": the color of all races blending together in harmony to create a spectrum of awe and beauty. Yes, it's Utopian but again it's something to work towards.

Selection Time

And times really haven't changed, have they? I was glancing over Jesse Owens column on our sports pages and came up with this gem:

"In the 1930's, we encountered other problems beside obtaining the right types of food in required amounts. Many of us were not able to find the time to practice our athletic skills because we had to hold part-time jobs."

"Our exercise would be obtained by running to school in the morning, running to the job in the afternoon and trying to squeeze in other practice time wherever and whenever we could."

RUN from school to job practice? Heck, kids now adays DRIVE to these spots.

But MONEY in all previous and present times has been a deciding factor. (Sounds a little Marxist, doesn't it?)

And because of money - or the lack of it - Inkster had to cut out its cross country program. Coach Kam White (who's also the AD at Inkster) was missed in our recent Western Wayne Meet - but he says he and his Vikings will be back.

Speaking of cross country, it's getting close to that time of selecting the All-Area team and Coach of the Year. John Glenn's Jerry Szukaitis says he won't mind collecting the data for the team if you coaches will cooperate.

Szukaitis, who is head coach at Glenn, can be contacted at 728-4730.

Only high school harriers from Belleville, Glenn, Wayne Memorial, Garden City East and West, Robichaud and Cherry Hill are eligible for the team.

The "Coach of the Year". That's 'easy'. Sports Editor Tom Mooradian will do the selection. (Always on the spot, that's me).

A Couple of Riddles

If you think Garden City West's football team is an enigma, how about Belleville's team? West gridders socked it to Taylor Kennedy two weeks ago to topple the Patriots into the losing columns for the first time this year. Then they go on to lose to a team (Crestwood) which had only one previous victory in the Tri-River.

Coach Harold Burkholder is still scratching his head? And so are many of the fans.

Well, it appears that most of these kids who are now playing for coach Jim Richendollar played on unbeaten freshmen and junior high teams.

And when they make the transition to varsity, they become "losers".

Belleville hasn't won a Suburban Six Conference game this season and the fans are hungry for a win, let alone a title. No one in these parts can even recall when the Tigers won the championship.

One fan however says, "It's Jim Richendollar's fault."

Richendollar, however, has been on the job only for two years - how the heck can anyone blame him?

"He's too nice," says this fan. "The kids respect him, admire him, and give 100 per cent to win for him."

What's that about "nice" guys finishing last?

How about it, Jim? Don't be a nice guy, any more.

Huron gridders muffed their first serious chance of winning a conference game and have only two more left as hope of picking up a Huron League win as this season fades.

The Chiefs surrendered to Monroe Jefferson 20-6 after giving battle for a half and shutting out their league rivals the second half.

"I sincerely felt we could have and should have won that game," said coach Tom Grange afterwards. "We had more opportunities than ever, but some of the boys let down at crucial points which caused our downfall."

Huron, which is winless in the league has Grosse Ile and Flat Rock left on the conference agenda. And both teams are tough customers.

The Chiefs have a nonleague rival Ypsilanti Lincoln to contend with this weekend.

Jefferson worked and earned their first touchdown as they put together a 65-yard march in the first minutes of the initial quarter to get on the scoreboard.

Quarterback Chuck Impastato went over on a one-yard sneak after picking up the extra point, Monroe had a 7-0 lead.

But Huron came right back with a touchdown on their own. Fullback Glenn Dregansky, on the second play from scrimmage, scooted 60 yards for the TD. It was his and the team's best running performance of the '68 season.

Dregansky, after a penalty, missed the conversion attempt. But the Chiefs were nearby, 7-6.

Not for long, however. After the first period, Monroe crashed over for two more TDs in the second period - which moved them ahead 20-6 at halftime. They were held scoreless in the second half.

With Billy Crocker and Don Middlestat picking off Monroe passes, and an excellent defensive performance, the Chiefs looked their best, but a sputtering offense failed to erase Jefferson's two TD advantage.

"We got our share of breaks," said coach Grange, "but couldn't capitalize on them."

There were other bright spots in Huron's game: the running of Butch Suemnick, the effort of end Dan Dilks and defensive end Middlestat's performance showed that the Chiefs could still surprise someone before the season is over.

League Meet Next For Tiger Harriers

BELLEVILLE — The Tigers have two more big meets on their cross country menu this week and then coach Marland Howard can rest up until track time. His harriers, who lost a 21-38 decision to Redford Union, failed to earn a Suburban Six Conference dual meet this season.

Belleville will compete in the league meet, to be held today at Cass Benton Park at 4 p.m. and vie in the Regionals on Saturday at the same site (10 a.m.). But there's little hope for the Tigers who'll be facing some of the best cross country teams in the state at the regional.

FOR GRAND NATIONAL RACES

New Speedway Signs Pact

Lawrence H. LoPatin, President of Michigan International Speedway announced today that negotiations have been completed with the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR) guaranteeing two Late Model Stock Car racing dates in 1969 for the new Michigan racing facility in the Irish Hills.

The contract provides Michigan International Speedway with two definite NASCAR Grand National dates each year over a 10 year period - the longest contract ever issued by NASCAR to a motor racing facility.

Total awards exceeding $2 million dollars will be presented to competing drivers. These prize monies, together with established awards at other tracks, should provide NASCAR drivers with over $22 million dollars in awards, during the next ten years.

Bill France, Sr., President of NASCAR, stated in Detroit, that: "After viewing your fine race, and fantastic facility this past weekend, we feel that Michigan International Speedway is one of the finest racing plants in the United States, and the world."

Glinski's extra point attempt was blocked.

Rouge went to work early on Romulus as quarterback George Mihau tossed a pair of TD missiles in the opening stages of the first quarter to lead the Panthers to a 19-0 edge. The outcome was never questioned after that initial period.

Rouge scored again in Ken Russaw and Bill Kilgore in the second quarter.

Romulus can get a share of second place this week but it will have to find a way to get around Willow Run, the runnerup. The two clash Friday night on the Flyer's field.

"We'll give them a good game," said coach Pratt. "We have had our share of problems but so have they."

One of coach Pratt's problems (better still, ten of them) is that Romulus has sidelined nearly a dozen players because of injuries. The latest to get on the list was veteran guard Richard Stamey who fell off a truck and suffered a shoulder separation. Stamey is out for the season.

Continuing to pace Romulus' defense, though, is John Staneke, who picked off seven unassisted tackles and received credit for three assists against Rouge.

After mopping up in the league, Romulus will wind up the season with two nonleague rivals. The Eagles play Robichaud a week from Friday and close out with Inkster the following week.

Outdoor Group Has Openings

BELLEVILLE - The newly formed Outdoor Sportsmen Group in Western Wayne County still has openings for new members.

The Huron Valley Conservation Association has announced that anyone joining the club before Dec. 31, 1968, will become a charter member.

The need for a new sportsmen club was prompted by the reason that most of the established clubs have no openings for new members.

At present, the Huron Valley Conservation Association plans are only for a 400 membership club. They also have limited openings in their junior membership for boys, 14 years old and up.

THIS CLUB offers Skeet and Trap shoots, Archery, and Fishing activities. They are active in the ever increasing Recreational and Pollution situation that has become a important factor in the betterment of sporting facilities.

All sportsmen that are interested in joining the Huron Valley Conservation Association, can attend the regular membership meeting, which is held every second Monday of each month, at 7:30 p.m., at Rogalle's Banquet Room, located at the I-94 exit of Haggerty Road and the North Service Drive.

Homecoming floats have been witnessed by all the students at BHS. Clubs and classes have been working for weeks trying to prepare for Homecoming Day.

To start a float, a class or club has to secure a petition and submit the name of their float to Student Council. The council will either accept the idea or refuse it. After this step each group starts working hopefully towards its prize-winning float. Now, after all their hard work, their work will be judged.

This year all float titles chose their themes from television commercials. There are the freshmen, sophomore, junior, and senior classes, the orchestra, choir and French Clubs which participated in this event.

The seniors chose for their theme, "Tigers on Tap." They are hoping to repeat their victory and to win again this year. Seniors have been working at Renee Liedell's home.

THE SOPHOMORES chose "Caution: Tigers May Be Hazardous to Your Health," as their theme. Sophomores have been working at Mike Suliman's home again this year.

The juniors chose "Mark of Excellence," as their theme and they were working at Girl's Town.

The freshmen have made their first attempt at making a float. They chose "Tigers on the Rocks," as their theme, and they have been working at the Zannis' home.

Clubs have also been working hard on their floats. The French Club chose "Put a Tiger in Our Tank," as their theme. They have worked on the float at Richard Korgal's home.

The orchestra members have also worked very hard and are entering "Tigers Pour it On." They worked every night at Gail Freysinger's home.

THE CHOIR chose "They're Defenseless, We've Got Their Right Guard," as their theme. They worked at Gloria Traskos', who is a freshman.

Students at BHS voted Friday, Oct. 11 for the five candidates to represent our school. The five girls chosen were: Karen Carter, Cathy Hoelt, Debbie Hink, Debbie Thompson, and Nancy Brown. The queen will be announced at half-time at the Homecoming Game, Oct. 18. The queen and her court reigned over the Homecoming Dance which was entitled "Say the Sun Did It." The dance was held on Oct. 19 from 8-11 p.m.

John Sexton Company Sets Up Its Headquarters in Belleville Area

BELLEVILLE — The John Sexton Company which now has made its area headquarters in Belleville is no stranger to Michigan and has had a local distribution center serving the volume food industry located in Detroit since 1946.

Why the company chose Belleville to locate its latest of 13 distribution centers serving all of the 50 states, Canada and the West Indies is answered by the general manager of the Metropolitan Detroit office, Frank Sexton Jr.

"Belleville is ideally located for our business," explains Sexton, who is one of two grandsons of the company's founder, John Sexton, "because we are close to I-94 and the route of the new I-275 (the interstate north-south highway still under construction) Expressway. At this intersection, we can easily serve our customers throughout lower Michigan and northwestern Ohio."

All of the deliveries to Sexton customers in this region are made from the Belleville company branch at 11800 Hannan Road, just south of I-94 and east of Haggerty Road (proposed right-of-way for the new I-275 Expressway.)

More than 1,600 items for the volume food industry, which includes restaurants, hotels, hospitals, schools, nursing homes and industrial caterers, are handled by the John Sexton Company and about 40 percent of these items are manufactured by the company.

Many people are familiar with the "Sexton" label on the large three-quart cans even though these cans are not found in the grocery stores. The company, founded in 1883, was the innovator of the "Number 10" can, and advertising and wide acceptance of the Sexton trademark throughout the country has made it widely known.

The Sexton line of products is backed up by a rigid quality control program which includes extensive research and productive development. Dr. Clarence Wiesman, director of Sexton research and development, guides the company's quality control program from his laboratories in the Chicago office which serves as headquarters for the company.

Dr. Wiesman is recognized as an authority in the food industry and his research for Sexton has resulted in several important contributions being made in the field.

Sexton products must measure up to the high quality standards established by the company before they are included in the regular line and made available to the "volume feeders," the hotels, restaurants and others. Dr. Wiesman conducts taste-testing panels as well as market-testing programs to back up his research in the new product development.

A new product developed through Sexton research recently was a gelatin mold that can set in just 15 minutes. The request for this product came from the volume food industry leaders and was perfected by Sexton only after an extensive three-year testing program.

Once a product is accepted and marketed by Sexton, the 13 distribution centers throughout the country are supplied from three major manufacturing and packaging plants located in Indianapolis, Ind., New Jersey and California.

Many products introduced to the food industry by Sexton are now being made available to the public by companies in the retail food business. Creamed sliced beef, cubed beef, beef stroganoff, chopped chicken livers and roast beef in cans are just a few of the items Sexton has developed for the volume feeders that are now being introduced on the grocer's shelves.

The John Sexton Company originally started as a retail grocery store on State Street in Chicago. The Company only briefly remained in the retail business and soon took on the specialized service to the volume food users. President of the company is T. Mackin Sexton, grandson of the founder and brother to the general manager of the Belleville office, William C. Sexton, a cousin, is now serving as vice president in charge of branch operations for the company. The founder, John Sexton, is still active in the firm.

FRANK SEXTON, GENERAL MANAGER of the John Sexton Company branch in Belleville, is pictured above at the company's newest distribution center, one of 13 now serving the 50 states, Canada and the world located on Hannan Road. Sexton's grandfather started the business as a Chicago grocer in 1883 and the company now handles more than 1,600 items used world-wide by hotels and restaurants and others in the volume feeding industry.

NEW OUTLET — The John Sexton Company branch in Belleville opened last April and Serves all of lower Michigan and northwestern Ohio. The new building is located at 11800 Hannan Road, just south of I-94 and east of Haggerty Road.

Human Relations Group Meets Tonight

NEW BOSTON — For several months now, an embryonic Huron Township Association for Community Affairs has been meeting weekly with Negroes from neighboring areas hoping to improve human relations by simply getting to know each other.

As a result of these informal, but enlightening get-togethers; they (we) feel encouraged to sponsor a program regarding human relations among all races.

This program, consisting of five weekly Inter-Faith, Inter-Racial meetings, will take place at the Huron Junior High School Auditorium. Each meeting will feature a guest speaker, followed by informal group discussion, and closing with a question and answer period. There will also be an intermission and refreshment period. Attendance involves absolutely no fee.

Tonight (Wednesday, Oct. 23), at 8 p.m. will be the first meeting.

The subject of tonight's meeting will be the "Psychology of Prejudice." The speaker will be Dr. Abraham Citron, associate professor of Sociology at Wayne State University. He has earned his Ph.D. in Sociology at Columbia University; and is currently the Director of Inter-Group Relations, Center College of Education-Wayne State University.

Will YOU help build a bridge of communication through the wall of prejudice which separates far too many of us from each other?

Teachers Institute Opens Here Friday

BELLEVILLE — The Van Buren School District Teachers' Institute will be held at the Belleville High School, this Friday, Oct. 25.

The Institute will open at 9 a.m. with a coffee hour and exhibition in the High School cafeteria.

remarks by Roland Wolfe, graduate counselor and district MEA president.

Keith Drayton, choir director, will present the high school choir in several numbers and School Superintendent Dale E. Kaulitz will deliver an address entitled "Professionalism."

The main address entitled "School Community Relations" will be presented by Richard Allen Huston, following a luncheon from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., the Institute will conduct workshop sessions, embracing nearly all phases of educational services and programs.

PCHA Reports Increase of $2 Million in Assets

WAYNE - The Operating Committee of the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) last Thursday (Oct. 17) received a preliminary report from auditors of the firm of Arthur Young & Company and learned that assets of the Authority increased approximately $2 million over assets of a year ago.

PCHA is now worth a record $34,400,000 in total assets to the twenty-three communities participating in the Authority. A full report will be made to the directors at their regular October board meeting this week.

OF PARTICULAR significance in the report, in addition to the increase in assets, is the increased revenue returned to PCHA communities in salaries, wages and fringe benefits.

Combined the four PCHA hospitals returned an average of 68.59%, or over $11 1/2 million to families and workers in their communities. This is an increase of $1,887,000 over the previous year.

The financial report also pointed out that once again PCHA and its hospitals had succeeded in matching increased expenses "almost exactly" with appropriate increases in revenues.

Total operating expenses and capital expenditures amounted to $16,430,000 against a budget of $16,477,000. This indicates that PCHA had actually spent $47,000 less than it budgeted for its total operation last year.

HYMAN SAPAKIE, representing the auditing firm, also reported that all tax assessments from participating communities were current and paid. These collections totaled $1,172,000 and include all delinquent assessments. These represent collections between July 1, 1967 and June 30, 1968.

Specific hospital financial results were as anticipated, stated the auditors. Annapolis Hospital had revenues totaling $6,505,000, from which it paid $3,878,000, or 68% in wages, salaries and fringe benefits; Beyer Memorial had revenues of $3,000,000, paying out over $2 million, or 73% in wages and benefits; Outer Drive had revenues of over $7,300,000, paying out $3,890,000, or 67% for the same; and Seaway collected $2,464,000, paying out some $1,660,000, or 68% for wages and benefits.

The total net income for the four hospitals was $815,000, as compared with $771,000 in the previous year. The report stated that this difference in income was only $43,240, of which $13,475 was an increase in depreciation expense.

THE AUDITORS called the PCHA financial situation an excellent balance of income and expense, and also noted that all legal requirements for debt retirement had been satisfied properly.

Other areas of specific interest in the report were:

- *Central Office of PCHA spent approximately $9000 less than budgeted for the year;
- *That despite steady increases in the cost of running hospitals, PCHA units were well within the national average and were providing patient care at daily room service charges less than most metropolitan hospitals;
- *That payroll costs at PCHA hospitals had increased nearly $2 million over the previous year.

Donald J. Pizzimenti, Chairman of the PCHA Board of Directors, said he believed the financial picture of the Authority and its hospitals should please patients and participating communities alike.

"We are keeping the lid on costs to patients; we are paying out more in wages and benefits to our employees; we are building more new beds; we are providing more and more services; and we are worth more in total assets to our participating communities," said Pizzimenti.

Young Citizens For Humphrey Announced

John Canfield, Mayor of Dearborn Heights and chairman of the 15th Congressional District Democratic Party, announced the formation of The Young Citizens for Humphrey-Muskie

Committee in the 15th District.

The organization is composed of young people between the ages of 17 and 25 who are volunteering their time and efforts to the Humphrey-Muskie campaign.

Their office is located at 23915 Goddard Road, just east of Telegraph in Taylor, at the regular 15th District Democratic Headquarters.

A statement issued by the founding members of the Young Citizens Committee said:

"We believe Hubert Humphrey to be a man of high ideals and moral courage. Young people recognize Hubert Humphrey not as a man of words alone, but a man of creative and fairminded action. We support Hubert Humphrey because we feel he is best equipped to set the mood needed for this country to move forward in this critical period of our history."

The founding members of the Committee include:

Barbara West, of Taylor, District Coordinator; David Plawewski, of Dearborn Heights, Chairman; Ronald Koss, of Garden City, Co-Chairman.

Congressman Ford Tells Of Summer Job Openings

WASHINGTON, D.C. - Congressman William D. Ford (D) 15th District announced this week that it is time again for young people to be thinking about applying for summer jobs with the Federal Government.

Each summer, Ford said, there are a limited number of summer openings for qualified youths. These positions vary from office jobs to Park Rangers and are located throughout the United States.

Applicants must be U.S. citizens, and at least 18 years of age at the time of appointment to a summer job. However, this requirement is waived in the case of high school graduates who are at least 16 years old at the time of appointment.

EACH APPLICANT is required to take the Summer Employment Examination administered by the Civil Service Commission. There are several of these tests scheduled each year.

Ford Motor Plant Using Rolling Employment Units

Have jobs, will travel. That could be the slogan of two red, white and blue mobile employment vans now becoming a familiar sight in Detroit and surrounding communities.

Used by Ford Motor Company's Wixom Assembly Plant, the compact Econoline vans are rolling recruiting stations designed to help hire new employees needed weekly during new model launching periods.

The vans have been touring the area - Detroit, Livonia, Inkster, Pontiac, Howell, Brighton, Milford and other communities - five days a week since August and will continue to do so through December. With local police cooperation, two employees manning each mobile office set up mini-recruitment centers in the heart of a city or in busy shopping centers.

CURRENT WIXOM job openings include product assemblers, spot welders, paint sprayers and metal finishers.

The plant has immediate openings. In fact, one goal of the unusual mobile van program is to sign up new recruits and have them on the job within 24 hours.

Plant employment personnel help new hires find other employees with whom they can share rides to and from the huge assembly plant, largest in the Ford system in North America.

The "Wixom Mobile Employment Office" program is rated a success by officials at the plant.
